

5-6. Resa was mixing blue and red paint to create purple paint. She created the drawing below to show the portions of blue paint to red that she used.

a. What does the picture tell you about the paint mixture? What statements can you make?

b. If you have not stated it yet, what percent of the paint is blue? What percent of the paint is red? Justify your answer.

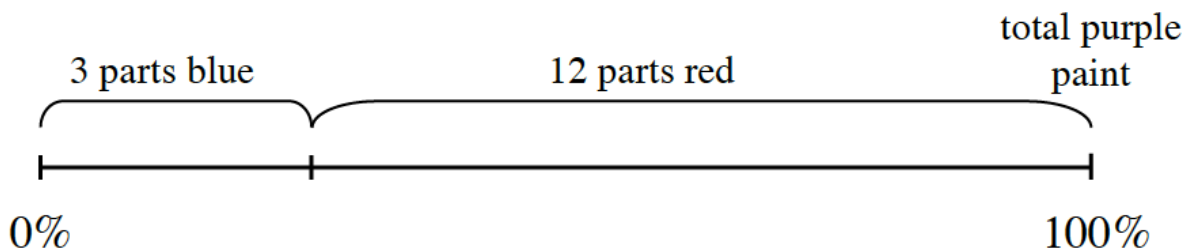

5-6. Resa was mixing blue and red paint to create purple paint. She created the drawing below to show the portions of blue paint to red that she used.

a. What does the picture tell you about the paint mixture? What statements can you make?

b. If you have not stated it yet, what percent of the paint is blue? What percent of the paint is red? Justify your answer.

5-6. Resa was mixing blue and red paint to create purple paint. She created the drawing below to show the portions of blue paint to red that she used.

a. What does the picture tell you about the paint mixture? What statements can you make?

b. If you have not stated it yet, what percent of the paint is blue? What percent of the paint is red? Justify your answer.